

THE DAILY NEWS.

The Fair-Or.

Comrade mine, as we go along
The fresh green banks over the willows grow,
Let the pulse of our stroke be true and strong
From the bent blades flicking to and fro.

Sharp the prow as it cuts away
In a wedge-like furrow the level stream,
And the wrinkles run from the drooping spray
As our bright spruce planks cut and gleam.

Bubbles swell from the shining track
The keel and the oar strokes, daring wide;
And the wake of foam sweeps merrily back
With its tiny eddies on either side.

"Now, away!" and the lightly boat
Into shadow and coolness, where the trees
Are a mighty armor about the shore
As the bright spruce planks cut and gleam.

There once more through the open strait
The fresh green banks over the willows grow,
On the homeward stroke, with a glance elate
At the bent blades flicking to and fro.

Comrade mine of the old fair-Or,
Are there days of a better joy than this,
When the ship so swiftly beats the shore
With our stroke true as our friendship is?

Never long will the daylight last
Or the spring of the happy year—
Let us catch the pleasures which hurry past
While our arms are strong and our hearts are true.

The College of Charleston,
To the Honorable the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Charleston:

Charleston, January 17, 1888.
Gentlemen: I beg leave to submit to your honorable body the enclosed petition of four students of the College of Charleston, who are the appointees to the scholarship provided by the generous benefaction of the late Hon. Ker Boyce.

The benefaction referred to in the petition, is held by the trustees under the will of the Hon. Mr. Boyce, who is known as the Boyce Fund, and the petitioners are the present beneficiaries.

The application, which will be seen, has been endorsed by the Faculty.
The petitioners set forth, justly, the importance of the money designed for their liberal education. At their age, the postponement of these means may be irremediable.

Commending the application to your favorable consideration, I beg to be,

Very respectfully,
DANIEL RAVENEL, President,
In behalf of the Board of Trustees.

To the Honorable the Trustees of the Charleston College of Charleston:

The petition of the undersigned, appointees to the scholarship provided by the generous benefaction of the late Hon. Ker Boyce, respectfully shew:

That the failure of the city to pay the dividend on their stock, has for the last three quarters deprived them of the income set apart for their support; and that they are, in consequence, unable to prove themselves worthy of the confidence so kindly reposed in them, to forego the expected result of their exertions, and seek in other avocations the means of present support.

That the petitioners, who are the beneficiaries of the benefaction of the late Hon. Ker Boyce, are the undersigned, and that they are, in consequence, unable to prove themselves worthy of the confidence so kindly reposed in them, to forego the expected result of their exertions, and seek in other avocations the means of present support.
